

A Neglected Cold

quickly becomes a serious lung disease. The course of prudence when coughs or colds attack you is to begin treatment at once. The best and safest treatment is to take

BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP

A Soothing Healing Remedy for the Throat and Lungs

Many people have a mistaken idea of their constitutional strength. They get the habit of allowing colds, coughs and lung affections to get well themselves. It's a dangerous habit. Many colds do get well without help, but it is the cold that does not get well that brings on the fatal pneumonia or consumption. The side of safety is to check every cold at the beginning. It is easily done and costs practically nothing.

A few doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup does the work quickly and thoroughly. It gives prompt relief in Hard Coughs, Sore Lungs, Tightness in the Chest, Hoarseness, Loss of Voice and Congestion in the Lungs.

Memorials on the death of Uriah Farrell, George B. Fletcher, John B. Jones, John H. Kelly, A. W. Laughlin and John W. Vaughan were submitted and ordered spread on the minutes, and are as follows:

URIAH FARRELL

an honored member of the Old Men's Club of Lafayette County, Missouri, was born in the State of Kentucky, on June 22, 1834, and moved with his parents to Saline County, Missouri, when he was about three years of age and about one year later moved with his parents to Lafayette County, and he lived in this county until his death which occurred in Higginsville on February 26th, 1915. Mr. Farrell was a man of strong Union sympathies and enlisted in the Army and served as a faithful soldier until the end of the war. He was united in marriage with Julia Ward of this county, and left surviving him at his death five boys and two girls, his wife having died about 12 years ago. He was united with the Christian church at Aullville about 4 years previous to his death.

He was a farmer by profession, and a good one, and there is no higher or nobler calling than that of the farmer, he was of a kind-hearted and sociable disposition, a man of many sterling characteristics, who played well his part in the affairs of this county.

GEO. B. FLETCHER.

Mr. Geo. B. Fletcher, son of William and Rachel Fletcher, was born in Henry County, Missouri, June 22, 1837. When a child he came to Lafayette county and remained a citizen of this county till his death. In 1868 he was married to Miss Lucy Catron. To this union five children were born; four of whom mourn his departure. Mr.

Fletcher was born into the kingdom of God when a young man; having thus given his heart to God, he united with the Presbyterian church and remained a loyal and consistent member till God called him home to receive the great reward, the crown of life, at the hands of the Master whom he loved. On Oct. 4, 1914, the call of the Master came and Mr. Fletcher crossed the river into the eternal home.

Yours truly,
HENRY HADER,
Committee.

JOHN B. JOHNS.

Again it becomes a painful duty to record the death of a worthy and beloved member of the Old Men's Club—John B. Jones—who died at his country home near Higginsville, Mo., March 15, 1915, aged 81 years, 5 months and 18 days.

John B. Jones was born in Brooks County, Va., Sept. 27, 1833, and had been a resident of Lafayette county since 1858, ever enjoying the friendship, confidence and esteem of our people. He was twice married, the first time in 1871 and the second marriage in 1897, to Miss Ida R. Anderson, who survives.

At the age of 24 years he united with the Methodist church, and ever lived a true Christian life. He was a Mason for many years, a true friend of the widow and orphan, a devoted husband and a useful citizen in every relation of life.

His home life was beautiful—simple, plain, devoid of all show and pretense. Unusually blessed in his domestic relations, he found his happiest hours around the family fireside and in the company of congenial friends, and in all the walks of life—as citizen, neighbor, Christian—the same high courage and noble qualities prevailed.

Unflinching honesty and integrity distinguished him through life, and will serve as an example for rising generations. He simply lived what he believed. Such men and citizens as John B. Jones go to make up and perpetuate the best society in every community.

He became a member of the Old Men's Club Sept. 20, 1908, and was honored several times with the presidency. He delighted in attending the meetings, and by his presence and happy counsel made the gatherings of the Club seasons of great pleasure and profit.

In his death the public lost a valuable citizen, the church an earnest worker and this club a beloved and active member.

An unassuming, useful citizen, an honorable, high-minded gentleman and a zealous Christian his earthly pilgrimage over, he rests in peace. We lament his loss. We revere his memory.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK BOWMAN,
Committee.

JOHN H. KELLY

The undersigned your committee appointed at the last regular meeting of this body to prepare a suitable memorial upon the life and character of our departed friend and brother, John H. Kelly, late of Odessa, Missouri, that the same might become a part of the permanent records of the Club, beg leave to submit this short testimonial to his life and character.

While your committee was made sad indeed by the news of the death of the dear departed, we have found the task of preparing this paper a pleasant and helpful duty owing to the fact of the esteem in which he was held by the many friends who knew him best. The testimony of all such was and is that he was indeed a good man. From such testimony and from our personal knowledge of the man we have no doubt he was a good man in the highest and best sense in that we believe him to have been a noble Christian gentleman. What better memorial need any man desire than this? To deserve such encomium it seems to us marks the highest ideal of perfection attainable by human beings. To some in this life comes riches and honors in profusion and they are not to be shunned but rather sought, if the spirit in which they are sought and the manner of their use be in accord with right ideals, but if they are to be had and used only at the cost of making us forget that these are only temporary and fleeting incidents of our careers that must be left behind as we pass over to the other shore, then indeed is it better that they come not at all. We take it that after all the only passport that will admit us to the elysium of the hereafter will be one that has inscribed upon it in unmistakable terms evidence of noble Christian character. What we are when the death angel makes his call will determine for us eternal destiny, whether it be good or evil. Nor is there in this any reason for dismay of vanishing hope since character building is an occupation open alike to all and we are thus made the architects of our own destiny and the structures erected by us, whether they be good or indifferent, are to be as enduring as the universe itself. Consequently if one built wisely and well though he be the humblest of earth's children he shall in the eternal hereafter vault to the loftiest realizations possible to a human soul. Such triumphs, moreover, are only a little while delayed and then an eternity of joy and felicity. Our friend and brother realized in early life that the best thing this life offered was the opportunity to build noble Christian character and suiting his actions to his belief he joined the Baptist church when a mere youth and continued a member of that church until death called him hence. Thus through a period of more than seventy years he was permitted to work in perfecting and fitting himself for the eternity of happiness he believed awaited all who served the Lord in sincerity and truth. We have no doubt that he is now realizing to the full the fruition of his toil and service while here below.

The subject of this memorial was born in the state of Alabama on the 13th day of September, 1827 and died at Odessa, Missouri, on the 16th day of May, 1915, in the eighty-eighth year of his age. When only four years old he was brought by his parents to Cooper County, Missouri, and he continued to live in this state ever after until his death. He was married in Cooper county to Miss Martha Duncan on the 13th day of November, 1849. She departed this life in 1851 and on the 9th day of May, 1854, he was married to Miss Virginia C. Clutter. Of this latter marriage there were born twelve children, eight of whom survive him together with his widow. He came to Lafayette county shortly after the Civil war and lived in the county about forty-nine years. He was buried in the cemetery of Odessa. The funeral services were conducted under the auspices of the Masonic Order of which order he was a member, at the Baptist church in Odessa. His pastor Rev. E. W. Chewning, preached the principal sermon with helpful talks made by Rev. W. F. Wagoner and Rev. Cockrell, old time friends of the deceased.

Respectfully submitted,
J. H. CHRISTY,
Committee.

ALEXANDER W. LAUGHLIN. Alexander W. Laughlin was born in Coles County, Illinois, March 8th, 1840, and died in Wesley hospital, Kansas City, Mo., November 19th, 1914, aged 74 years, 9 months and 11 days. From Illinois he moved to Iowa, where he lived for many years. He was twice married, first to Elvira Jane Lyons in 1866. Of this union 4 children were born. He was married again to Miss Sarah M. Whitaker June 22, 1881. To this union one child was born. Mr. Laughlin served in the U. S. Army during the war of the rebellion in an Iowa Regiment. He was a member of the C. P. church, was an Elder for many years, a faithful Christian and officer. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity for many years and member of the Old Men's Club. He came to Missouri from Iowa, and lived in the vicinity and in Odessa for many years. He was an honest, upright man in all the relations of life. He was true to his convictions and country and his friends.

JOHN W. VAUGHAN.

Brother John W. Vaughan was born near Georgetown, Kentucky, on the 19th day of July 1836, and died at his old farm home 4½ miles south of Dover, Oct. 10, 1914, age 79 years. He came to Missouri from Kentucky in the spring of 1860, and purchased the farm upon which he died. In 1861 he married Miss Columbia Carter, by which marriage were born to them two children, E. Harvey and Miss Lizzie Vaughan, both still living. The year 1863 he swore allegiance to the Confederate cause and joined Company B, Gordon's Regiment of Shelby's Brigade, and was elected a lieutenant, and of whom there was no braver or gallant soldier. He remained with the army until the surrender when he returned to his farm and lived the life of a quiet farmer. Brother Vaughan was a member of no church, yet his life was strictly moral, and full of loving kindness to all. Peace to his ashes.
